The Sustainability Agenda is a weekly podcast exploring today's biggest sustainability questions. Guests are leading sustainability thinkers who offer their views on the biggest sustainability challenges, identify what's working—and what needs to change—and think about the future of sustainability.

Artists for Iran - Sunday Bloody Sunday, A4A Music

Music video available on YouTube

A reimagining of U2's iconic protest song with Canada's top artists. Originally recorded to raise awareness of the political crisis and human suffering in Sudan, this new lyric video aims a spotlight on the fight for human rights in solidarity with the women and people of Iran.

Run as One: The Journey of the Front Runner

CBC Short Doc with a Manitoba connection

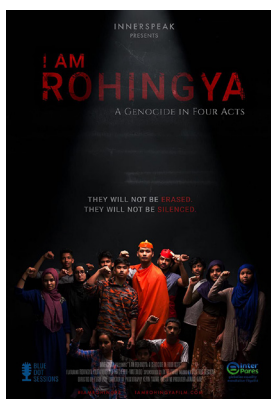

In 1967 ten Indigenous athletes ran the Pan Am Games torch from Minneapolis to Winnipeg. Just before they entered the opening ceremonies, the torch was handed to a white athlete. One of the athletes, Elder Dr. Dave Courchene—Nii Gaani Aki Innini—founded Turtle Lodge in Sagkeeng First Nation.

SONITA (2015)

Award-winning documentary

The inspiring story of Sonita Alizadeh, an 18-year-old Afghan refugee in Iran, who thinks of Michael Jackson and Rihanna as her spiritual parents and dreams of becoming a big-name rapper. An intimate portrait of creativity and womanhood and the rarely seen intricacies and shifting contrasts of Iranian society.

I am Rohingya: A Genocide in Four Acts (2018)

Award-winning documentary

A powerful documentary that chronicles the journey of 14 refugee youth who take the stage to depict their families' experiences during the on-going Burmese genocide of Rohingya Muslims. A courageous act of resistance, these youth show the world that they will not be silenced, they will not be forgotten.
